Tour Itinerary

7:30am –Meet and pick up at the hotel lobby and travel north traversing across the Crocker range for about 2 hours to the base of Mt. Kinabalu. The mountain stands at 13,435ft (4095 meters) and is the highest mountain between the Himalayas and New Guinea. En-route we stop by Nabal Village for a chance to mingle with the native Dusun villagers. Learn more about their life from the produce they sell such as local fruits and handicrafts.

After that proceed to Kinabalu Park to visit the exhibition hall or the short jungle trail. After that enjoy ride with All Terrain Vehicles(ATV) in the highlands of Sabah and take opportunity to enjoy the most beautiful place of Borneo. Experience the Dusun peoples' land by visiting Kundasang valley where the majestic Mount Kinabalu casts a magnificent backdrop over green pastures, farmlands, and villages. You will ride 150cc quad bikes on and off road in the hills of Kundasang, passing by Dusun villagers, Holstein-Friesian cows, farmlands, cottages, and experience the cool, breezy mountain air. Proceed back to Kota Kinabalu hotel and that's the end of our memorable tour.
