Tour Itinerary

7:30am –Meet and pick up at the hotel lobby and travel north traversing across the Crocker range for about 2 hours to the base of Mt. Kinabalu. The mountain stands at 13,435ft (4095 meters) and is the highest mountain between the Himalayas and New Guinea. En-route we stop by Nabal Village for a chance to mingle with the native Dusun villagers. Learn more about their life from the produce they sell such as local fruits and handicrafts.

After that proceed to paragliding site. The site is located in the Ranau district, about 108 kilometers from the city and paragliding on a cliff with an altitude of 2,200 meters. The name of Ranau is taken from the language of the Dusun, meaning "Paddy". The Ranau Cliffs have a cool feeling, and the surrounding scenery includes the world-famous "Mount Kinabalu" and some mountain views. Take a paragliding journey to experience, feel and explore different trips to Sabah. Proceed back to Kota Kinabalu hotel and that's the end of our memorable tour.
