Tour Itinerary

Pulau Tiga is one of a group of small uninhabited islands in Kimanis Bay off the western coast of Sabah, Malaysia. The islands were formed on 21 September 1897, when an earthquake on Mindanao caused a volcanic eruption near Borneo. The island is 607 hectares (1,500 acres) in size and has a couple of active mud volcanoes at the highest part of the island. Tiga Island is one of the three islands that make up Tiga Island National Park. Tiga Island is also well known through the Survivor television series. At 7am pick up from the hotel lobby. The journey towards South West coast of Sabah begins with a 2 hours' drive to Kuala Penyu jetty. Another 30 minutes boat ride to the island, upon arrival, short briefing is conducted before snorkeling session will be given. After snorkeling, jungle trekking and soak in the volcano mud and experience a unique and natural spa in the jungle whereby local believe that the volcano mud have a medical value to the skin as well good for facial. After enjoying the volcano mud spa, proceed back to base to clean and wash the volcano mud at the beach. Lunch is served on the island. After lunch, you will have free time to discover around the island. At 3:30pm, take the return boat ride to jetty and transfer back to hotel. Approximately arrive at Kota Kinabalu around 5pm.
